

Field Trips at Coast Redwood presents:
Dia de los Muertos, October 2019

On October 24th our Spanish class is going to visit the Dia de los Muertos Exhibit, “Pasajes y Puentes”--Passages and Bridges-- at the Pajaro Valley Arts Council in Watsonville. Afterwards we’ll visit a nearby bakery to try the famous “Pan de Muerto”, visit an authentic Mexican market, and if time, eat lunch in a Mexican restaurant, “Super Taqueria”. We welcome and encourage parent drivers to accompany us. Contact Keidi Lewis with questions: klewis@slvusd.org

When: Thursday, October 24th. Leave P-4 at 9:15. (Or meet at 37 Sudden Street at 9:55 after letting me know). Back by 1:30 at the latest.

Where: Pajaro Arts Council, 37 Sudden St., Watsonville, California.

How: Bring your permission slip to Keidi Lewis by Thursday, October 17th.

What to bring: Bring $ (at least $10) for Mexican treats and something to drink, maybe even lunch depending on the mood.

Please detach! the above information for your reference later, and return the bottom portion to Keidi by Thursday, October 17th.
