Per Education Code Section 45125.1, a school district may require persons with more than limited contact with students to be fingerprinted and not provide services until the district has received fingerprint clearance back from the Department of Justice showing no prior convictions for certain serious or violent felonies. Have you ever been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor that has resulted in incarceration, a fine in excess of $50.00 and/or Probation?

Yes No If yes, explain on an attached sheet

Persons transporting students must also meet District requirements for a clear DMV record, a safe vehicle and insurance coverage. Are you an insured driver with a CA Driver's License?

Yes No

Additionally, the District is requiring persons with more than limited contact with students to provide proof of being free from Tuberculosis. Please attach TB results to the agreement.
